What can I find via swisscovery University and PH Bern?

- Research platform: ubbern.swisscovery.slspace.ch
- Collections of around 500 libraries throughout Switzerland
 - physical media (to a large extent with courier delivery service): Books, specialist journals, newspapers, images, films, sound formats, music scores, maps, teaching materials
 - Online resources

How do I register?

- New users: <https://registration.slspace.ch/?iz=ube>
- Campus Account must be connected to your SWITCH edu-ID account
- Manual for registration: <https://www.unibe.ch/ub/faq>
- Login in swisscovery: email and password of your SWITCH edu-ID

How do I search for media?

- Enter search term(s) in the search field and select a search profile.

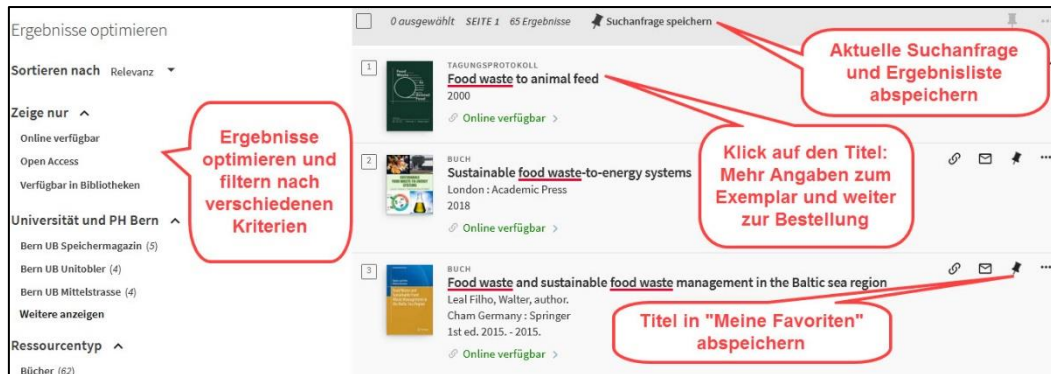

How do I use online resources?

- To narrow your search results to online resources, use the "online" filter.
- Full text resources are accessible on University of Bern campus and also via VPN connection.
- If you use the «open access» filter, you have access to these online-resources from anywhere, regardless of current location and institutional affiliation.
- You can find E-journals and databases in your subject in swisscovery in the menu item above the search bar.

How do I request media?

- To request an item, you must be logged in: ubbern.swisscovery.slsp.ch
- You can improve the list of search results by choosing filters:

- Click on the desired title in the search results list.

«Pick up on site» (1):

Free services:

- You can pick up the title in the library which owns the media.
- Postal delivery to home or office
- Digitization request (max. 50 pages)

«Further request options» (2):

Free service:

- Media delivery by local or nationwide SLSP courier by choosing a pick-up location of UB Bern

Service with costs:

- Postal delivery or digitization request done in the section «further request options» will be charged. These services are only free of charge for University of Bern staff if they are requested in the section “pick up on site” and if staff is registered correctly.

- The delivery time indicated is an estimation. A pick-up notification will be sent by email.
