

Coffee & Bit(e)s

The Coffee Lectures for Scientists

University Library Bern

Fresh information on research-related topics

Due to the current pandemic situation, our Coffee Lectures will take place via ZOOM only:

- Exciting news and valuable information for your scientific work
- All lectures are held in English
- No registration is required

Special Coffee Lecture offered by the Medical Library:

3rd November, 13:00 – 13:15

Responses to reviewers

Strategies for dealing with reviewer requests.

Dr. Kali Tal, UB Bern

Online on ZOOM:

<https://unibe->

ch.zoom.us/j/98668854286?pwd=cnVpMWtOamJWS1pZ0pQR3hxN01NZz09

Please find the Coffee Lectures offered by the Science Library below:

Always 15:15 – 15:30

For these, please use the ZOOM link provided via ILIAS (below):

https://ilias.unibe.ch/goto_ilias3_unibe_crs_1825331.html

Data visualization with Python

5th November

Generate beautiful plots with pandas and matplotlib.

Dr. Michael Horn, UB Bern

How to find money for you own research project?

10th November

Swiss and European third money funding instruments.

Dr. Annette Jäckel, Grants Advisor, University of Bern

Can we trust Wikipedia?

12th November

A critical look at the free encyclopedia.

Dr. Nuria Plattner, UB Bern

Paying for Open Access?

19th November

Read & Publish and the University's New Open Access Fonds.

Dr. Andrea Hacker, UB Bern

Shortcuts and tricks with reference management software

24th November

A deeper dive into Litlink and Zotero.

Dr. Philipp Casula, UB Bern

Useful databases for Geography

26th November

There is more than Web of Science and Scopus.

Silvan Christen, UB Bern

u^b