

Coffee & Bit(e)s

The Coffee Lectures for Scientists

Always

13:00–13:15

online on Zoom

<http://bib.unibe.ch/science>

Fresh information on research-related topics

- News and valuable information for your scientific work
- All lectures in English
- No registration required

---

Archives of the World Wide Web

9th November

How to access the internet of the past

Dr. Nuria Plattner, subject librarian for exact sciences, University Library Bern

---

Reference management with EndNote 20

10th November

What's old, what's new?

Dr. Marc von Gernler, subject librarian for pharmacy, University Library Bern

---

Adobe Stock for Bern University

17th November

Make your presentations and communications visually appealing with stock images

Stefan Grosjean, Medical Library, University Library Bern

---

Altmetrics

23rd November

Follow your research output in social media and news

Dr. Michelle Schaffer, head of Medical Library, University Library Bern

Dr. Aline Frank, subject librarian for biology, University Library Bern

---

How to promote your research on Instagram?

30th November

Dos and don'ts of individual science communication

Dr. Gino Caspari, Institute of Archaeological Sciences, University Bern

---

www.unibe.ch/ub/sciencelibrary

u<sup>b</sup>

b
UNIVERSITÄT
BERN